

Mark Mannock

Mark has been involved in the recording of over seventy albums world wide. He has recorded with, written for, performed with or supported artists such as Tina Turner, Joni Mitchell, Tommy Emmanuel, Shane Howard, David Hudson, Jimmy Little, Seaman Dan, The Sonic World Orchestra and Tjapukai. Having attained a music degree in composition Mark has won several awards for his work. These include Queensland Recording Association awards for 'Song of the Year', 'Best Adult Contemporary Song' and 'Best Schools Album'. His compositions have included music for the stage for actress Diane Cilento and 'Sleuth' playwright Anthony Schafer in addition to numerous pieces for television including contributions to the American Survivor series.

Mark has also contributed a great deal to contemporary music education programs in schools for which he has also won several awards including for 'Outstanding Services to Education'. As well as his involvement with Australian Sun Records Mark co-owns Hysterical Cat productions, an independent music and commercial production company with Nigel Pegrum. Their music appears on a number of world/lifestyle music labels around the world.
